We are excited to be sharing the year ahead with all of you as we start to explore the winter season! With switching into winter weather, please be sure to update your child's spare clothing to items that will help them stay warm. Speaking of staying warm, we are especially touched by the generous donations we received throughout December for our Mitten Tree! These items will keep plenty of families in need warm throughout the winter season.

Throughout the month of January, please continue to monitor your child for symptoms at home as we will continue to monitor at school. We do ask if someone in your household is being tested, please stay home until all are in the clear. If your child is showing symptoms please keep your child home as well. We ask that all children wash their hands as they enter the classroom, in the morning. Thank you for your understanding and support during these times. We are hoping everyone has a happy and healthy new year!

With winter comes colder weather and this can sometimes mean more time indoors. Snuggle up with a good book together. Here is a list of a few winter favorites:

The Itsy Bitsy Snowman by Jeffrey Burton
Snowmen at Night by Caralyn Buehner
The Snowy Day by Ezra Jack Keats
Sneezy the Snowman by Maureen Wright
How to Catch a Snowman by Adam Wallace
